This Bird Sure

Can Step On 'Em

Bob Shinn, of the Pacemakers, who are playing at the Hipp all this week, is as well known about town as the city mayor or judge of the county courts. He spied a reporter a half block away yesterday, and at once started a line of talk calculated to make a pessimistic newspaper man feel like a chump.

"Yes, sir," he says, "building a show is just about the same as making a newspaper, only it takes more brains." We accepted the slam, and listened. "The folks who pay admission at the box office are my circulation, and circulation is all I have to sell. I've got to bring my circulation up to the place in every city where it pays me a profit, and I can't sell advertising to make up the deficiency if the circulation receipts ain't strong enough, like you birds. And I've got to do that in six days. You folks want two years to make a newspaper a success, and I've got to make this show a howling success in every town, and take down a little velvet on every date, and only six days to do it. Other folks make the news for your newspaper."

I've got to make my show all but of the right material, and sometimes it is a mighty raw when I get it. Flashy costumes, chorus girls, song numbers, bits, in my business correspond to your local and wire news. But we both have to have features to put us over. Yours may be comics, recipes and fashions, mine have to be novelty harmony songs like Charley LaFord and Harry Harvey and I sing. Or a specialty number like Helen Manning does, "Oh By Jingo." You ought to see that. Charley LaFord and I do another feature that you'll like, "Laughing Water." Boy, it knocks 'em for a goal. Then Alice Lee and Alice Manning do a nifty dance. I know it's nifty, 'cause I showed 'em how to do it. Then there's a chatter bit that Charley LaFord, Harry Harvey and Emma and Evelyn Burke put on. Emma Burke sings a good one, too, "The Old Fashioned Garden." Now you know me, Al, I couldn't blow about this show if I didn't think it was the best I ever had." All the time he was talking, Bob kept walking, slowly toward the Hipp, and just when he was in high and stepping on the gas he was proving a strong feature. "Right over there is where you get your tickets, matinee starts in five minutes." Bob went back stage and we went in by the forty-cent route.

To make a long story longer, it is a typical Bob Shinn show, no limit to speed, everything going fast with a flash, and just such a mingling of dance, song, chatter and novelty as an experienced show man knows sends people away talking nice. This is the first time LaFord, the comedy boy, has been here, and he is proving a strong feature. All of the other members are well enough known, and their work well enough appreciated to make comment unnecessary. The junior members of the company, Bobby Shinn, Jr., and Evelyn LaFord, are starting at the early age of three years to "work," appearing in the finale each day. The little are prime favorites not only with every member of the company but with Shears and Kern have charge of the stage. The changes tomorrow to "Step Lively," and again on Friday night to "Safety First."

Five Before His Honor the Mayor

Five prisoners faced Mayor Conway in police court this morning who with the three who posted a forfeit and failed to appear represented the results of a more than usually active night for the city police.

Tom Leonard, well known to the court, was again on hand, this time accompanied by his brother, William. William, however, proved to the satisfaction of the court that he had not been drunk last night when arrested with Tom and was discharged. Tom drew a fine of $5. Frank Hamer and Steve Hammett were each fined $5 and costs. Thomas Bennett, Mike Dawson and Frank Hevers each forfeited his deposit.

DEATH OF INFANT.

Clara Elizabeth Schupp, aged six days, infant of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schupp, died yesterday at the home of her parents at 320 Front street. The funeral took place this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and burial was made in the Shaver cemetery by Undertaker Cunningham.
